

-
1. Folk tales from different cultures seek to explain certain things that occur in nature. Why do you think natural occurrences are often the subject of folk tales? Text to World
 2. On page 383, what simile does the author use to describe night? What similes would you use? Think Like an Author
 3. What generalization could you make about the story or one of the characters in it? What examples support that generalization?
 Generalize
 4. After the servants let the night escape, they run “terrified into the jungle.” What might the jungle at night be like? Describe what the servants might see, hear, smell, and feel.
 Visualize
 5. Look Back and Write Look back at page 390. The text explains how three things came to be. Write what they are and why they are there at the end of the night. Provide evidence to support your answer.
-